

ANTI-FUR CAMPAIGN

Poster Design Competition 2010

Hosted by

Terms and Conditions:

1. No animals were used in the production of the art work
2. All art works entered in to the competition must be the original work of the entrant.
3. No third party images will be allowed in the production of the art work
4. All entries must be original
5. The art work must not have previously been publicly distributed or exhibited and must not infringe on third party rights
6. We accept no responsibility for any entrants' designs, including (but not limited to) wording and images used
7. We are not liable for any copyright infringement on the part of any entrant and will not become involved in copyright disputes
8. The judges' decision are final
9. Artwork will not be returned to entrants after submission
10. By entering the competition, all entrants agree to transfer all commercial and non-commercial rights and property interest in the art work to Fur Free South Africa and its competition prize sponsor for free use in any manner
11. Fur Free South Africa and its competition prize sponsor reserve the right to suggest modification and/or amendments to the original design
12. The competition is open to all South African citizens except for employees/affiliates of Fur Free South Africa and its competition prize sponsor
13. Competition organizers may organise exhibitions to promote the work of entrants
14. The winner of the competition agrees to have their name and surname ,along with a photo published by Fur Free South Africa and its affiliates
15. The prize on offer consists of fashion voucher/s. The fashion voucher/s shall not be redeemable for cash and are not transferable. The fashion voucher/s will be credited to the winner/s' YDE account. In certain circumstances, the winner/s may be taxed in terms of Income Tax legislation and, to the extent, that the person/s concerned are unsure of their position in South African Tax law, he/she should seek a directive from the South African Revenue Service.
16. The deadline for submissions is 15 June 2010

ANTI-FUR POSTER DESIGN ENTRY FORM

Name: _____ Contact Number: _____

Email: _____ Alternative Number: _____

Address: _____

I hereby agree that:

- Fur Free South Africa and its competition prize sponsor has full rights to my art work to promote and disseminate for use in any marketing campaigns
- I have read, understand and will abide by the Terms and Conditions
- that any person(s) featured in the art work have given their consent to having their image used in a poster for public distribution
- any images used in the art work have been created by myself
- I understand that my entry will become the property of Fur Free South Africa and its competition prize sponsor in any manner.

Signature: _____

Date: _____

